

Howdy Folks,

THANK YOU for your response to our 'Energy Clearing Project'.

Many of you have written to let us know how much you appreciate the Energy Clearing. This makes my day!!

Faye has posted your comments at www.raymongracefoundation.org so you can see the difference it is making to others. And if interested you can participate by signing up on the <http://www.raymongracefoundation.org/energysession.html> website.

When we started this for the Christmas Holidays last year, we didn't know how long to offer it. Considering the response you have given us, we are going to continue to offer it for quite a while.

This has been a WIN ~WIN for both of us. It is economical for you and time saving for me. We called this a 'weekly' clearing but actually I do it every weekend and sometimes more often. The reason is, energy changes fast and there are some conditions that affect people continually. An example of this is the people you work with and live with. Energy work is like taking a bath, it needs to be done often.

In the 20 years that I have been working with energy, there have been over 10 'energetic situations' that have come on the scene, affected people and then vanished. For the most part, I have no idea where they came from or what happened to them. The best I could do was to alert people to the conditions when they existed.

The worst condition lately is something similar to a fragmented soul and I call it 'the soul not in this dimension.'

A few years ago, this was very rare, now it seems to be an epidemic. A scientist friend gave me some information about an 'energy coming from the center of the Milky Way that affected the minds of people'.

I had discovered 'something' affecting people's minds before this time but didn't know where it was coming from, so I called it 'astrological influence.'

It is my opinion this energy is causing what I'm referring to as 'souls not in this dimension'.

Please don't write and ask about this as I'm telling you all I know. When I do the clearing for you, this is a major factor. At this time, have not found a way to make a person immune to this force. Maybe can do it at some time in the future, but it hasn't happened yet.

In the meantime, I will continue to clear you with the list I offer if you attend class or the webinar. The list isn't perfect but it contains a lot of things that affect people, animals and places.

Have cut back travel this year and that allows a bit more time for phone sessions for those who want them. If you feel you need a private phone session, you can email me at raymon@raymongrace.us and briefly state what you hope I can help with. If it seems I can help you, will work out a time to call you. If not, will just tell you.

Hope you have a FUN Summer.

Raymon
